of Shelton State Community College

Vol. 1 No. 18 December 1, 1994

The SHELTON CHRONICLE is published twice a month by the Office of Public Relations and Alumni Affairs, (205) 391-2221.

PRESIDENT PROCLAIMS COOKIE DAY

Shelton State president Tom Umphrey proclaims Shelton State Cookie Day on Thursday, December 1, as the college celebrates the opening of the holiday season with its first annual Christmas cookie-sharing. The cookies will be located in the president's Skyland Campus office. According to Shelton vice president Ted Spring, Cookie Day will be an opportunity to share favorite cookies with other cookie lovers on campus.

All cookie lovers are asked to make two dozen cookies and bring them to the president's office between 7:30 a.m. and 12 noon on Thursday, December 1. Faculty and staff are then urged to fully participate in the experience by eating a dozen cookies made by others. Remember, get to the cookie feast early in order to make sure you get your choice of cookies.

FACES AND PLACES

Katherine Alexander, director of the college's life writing program, returned recently from a conference of the National Council for Preservation Education at Roger Williams University in Bristol, Rhode Island. This year's conference was held October 29-30. The main theme of the first day was the standards established for preservation education by the Secretary of the Interior and the National Park Service. The second day centered on preservation planning for one's own area.

MISS MATHERSON MAKES DEBUT

Congratulations to Ronnie and Lisa Matherson on the birth of their daughter, Connor Brooke. Connor arrived on November 28 and weighed 8 lbs. and 8 ounces. She will be greeted at home by her older brother, Craig.

UPDATE -

Golf information

Shelton's golf team finished third at the Alabama Intercollegiate Golf Tournament. Stuart Andrews fired rounds of 69, 75, and 73 to make the all tournament team.

This concludes the fall tournaments for the college. Shelton State had a strong fall, finishing second in four tournaments and third at the Alabama Intercollegiate. Shelton defeated every four-year institution they played except the University of West Florida, according to Coach Jimmy Collins, and expects a top 10 ranking this spring.

COLLEGE ESTABLISHES THE LON ALEXANDER MEMORIAL COLLECTION

Thanks to the suggestion of faculty member, Carole Johnson, the Shelton library is proud to announce The Lon Alexander Memorial Collection for Shelton State Community College Employee Publications.

Employee publications given as donations to the library will be placed in this collection and will be treated as reference materials. A new bookcase has been recently purchased to house this collection and a dedication date will be announced later.

Those donating materials may give their publications to the library to be bound in heavy cardboard binding. If preferred, individuals may bind their publication(s) at the Tuscaloosa Bindery or other place of choice at their own expense.

All copyrighted material must meet copyright standards. Books and magazines as well as reprints of articles appearing in books and magazines can be ordered from the publisher. EBSCO, in Birmingham, can supply copies of magazines. Employees should refer all questions and suggestions to Sully Cochrane.

ATTENTION STUDENTS! Would you like to study and work in Germany? The Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange Program for Young Professionals is now accepting applications. The deadline for completed applications is December 31, 1994.

Applicants must be U.S. citizens, 18-24 years of age, with clear career goals and related work experience. The program is designed primarily for young adults in business, technical and vocational fields. However, candidates in other career fields are also encouraged to apply. For more information, contact CDS International, Inc., 330 Seventh Avenue, New York, NY 10001, or call (212) 760-1400.
